Thinking about college?

All students need to fill out the FAFSA - the Free Application for Federal Student Aid. This form is used by colleges and universities across the United States to determine your eligibility for student grants, loans, scholarships and student employment.

College Goal SundaySM is the name of a program designed to give students and parents professional assistance in completing the FAFSA. Best of all, the College Goal SundaySM program provides answers to individual questions and is free of charge.

Sunday, February 11, 2007

On Sunday, February 11, 2007 College Goal SundaySM sessions will be held at 28 convenient locations throughout the state of Missouri. One of these sessions will be held at Missouri Valley College. In just one afternoon, students will be able to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid. Every college-bound student is eligible to participate, no matter what college he/she is planning to attend.

Students and their parents need to bring your 2006 federal tax information with you. (Specifics are described on the College Goal Sunday Web site). Financial aid professionals will be on hand to answer questions.

Financial aid deadlines for the fall term 2007 hit as early as March 1, 2007.

No matter how you get here, just get here.
Sunday, February 11, 2007 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
