MVC TO HOST CAREER FAIR AND WELLNESS FAIR

Over 30 employers representing a variety of career fields will be present.

Marshall, Mo. (March 21, 2007)—Missouri Valley College is hosting its 2007 Spring Career Fair from 9 a.m. until 12 noon on Wednesday, April 11 in the R. Wilson Brown Room in Ferguson Center on the MVC campus. Employers will be present from several career fields and the public is invited to attend.

Over 30 employers will be on hand and will represent the fields of higher education, elementary and secondary education, criminal justice, mass communication, youth services, and more.

This year's event will also feature a Wellness Fair. Attendees will be able to check blood pressure, BMI, oxygen saturation levels, weight and height, and more. The MVC Athletic Training Student Organization is offering five-minute massages for five dollars.

Attendees are encouraged to bring copies of resumes. Business attire is suggested for those who wish to visit with employers.

Employers attending include: over 10 public school districts, Butterfield Youth Services, MO Department of Corrections, Missouri State Highway Patrol and Water Patrol, four city police departments, four graduate schools, Isle of Capri Casino, KMMO Radio, and more (list is subject to change).

Visit www.moval.edu for a up-to-date list of employers and more information. No reservations are needed. Contact (660) 831-4046 or hoeflickers@moval.edu for more information.
