MVC VIKING LOGO TO MAKE ITS WAY AROUND THE TRACK AT KANSAS SPEEDWAY

Marshall, Mo. (September 25, 2008)—The Missouri Valley College Viking logo is making its debut on the track this weekend at the Kansas Lottery 300 at the Kansas Speedway.

ML Motorsports will team up this weekend with Missouri Valley College, and Mark Green's No. 70 Biomet/Foretravel Motorcoach Chevy will carry the school's logo on the deck lid and TV panel. ML Motorsports co-owner Stephany Mullen, as well as her husband, Team President Ed Mullen, graduated from Missouri Valley College.

In addition to representation on the track, nearly 200 MVC student-athletes will take part in the annual NASCAR fundraiser. This is the eighth year MVC student-athletes have worked the three-day event, which begins Friday. The event is the major fundraiser for the entire athletic department.

Green and Team 70 have competed in 16 Nationwide races this season, with their best finish being a fifth-place effort at Talladega in April.

In those 16 starts, Green has finished 28th or better 14 times. Green has an average finish of 22nd this season.

Green and Team 70 are scheduled to compete in five more races this season. Following Saturday's race at Kansas, team plans to race at Lowe's, Memphis, Texas and Homestead.

The Kansas Lottery 300 will be broadcast live on ESPN2 at 3:30 pm with coverage beginning at 3:00 pm on NASCAR Now. In addition, ESPN2 airs same-day coverage of Nationwide Series final practice from Kansas Speedway on Friday, Sept. 26, at 6 p.m.
