Stazen Signs with Missouri Valley Men's Volleyball

Marshall, Mo. (December 7, 2009)—Archbishop O'Hara high school senior, Josh Stazen, has signed his letter of intent to play volleyball with the Missouri Valley College men's team next season. Josh is the son of Monica Stazen and Donna Adams of Kansas City, Mo. In addition to playing for the varsity volleyball team at Archbishop O'Hara, Josh also played for the competitive KC Mavs Volleyball Club.

Missouri Valley head volleyball coach, Derick White said, "Josh is another local recruit that has whole-heartedly bought in to what we are trying to accomplish here at Missouri Valley. His love of the game and willingness to learn and become a college-level volleyball player will only help him become a better player as well as help improve our team during his career here. We are very happy that he has decided to become a Viking."

ABOUT MISSOURI VALLEY COLLEGE

Missouri Valley College is a liberal arts college that provides educational, social and cultural experiences in a decidedly Christian environment. Established in 1889, MVC offers over 30 majors and 7 pre-professional programs, and 15 sports. The most popular majors include education and business, and the newest majors are nursing, graphic design, dance, and hospitality/tourism management, which will begin in Fall 2009. The liberal arts heritage focuses on scholarship, critical thinking and academic excellence to prepare students to become members of a responsible citizenry.
