VETERANS TO BE HONORED AT MISSOURI VALLEY COLLEGE CEREMONY

Marshall, Mo. (November 5, 2009)—Missouri Valley College’s Veteran’s Association announce a Veteran’s Day observance and service to be held at 12:35 p.m. on Nov. 11 on the quad on the Missouri Valley College campus.

The ceremony will include a presentation of the colors by Missouri Valley’s R.O.T.C Viking Detachment, patriotic, a salute by the American Legion Post #191 Firing Squad, and a reading from Veterans Scotty Campbell and Harry Carrell of “What is a Vet” by Father Dennis Edward Scott.

“We take great pride in honoring those men and women who have fought for our freedom,” MVC President Bonnie Humphrey said. “It is important that they be recognized on this special day and we are excited to share the opportunity with the Missouri Valley and Marshall communities.”

A special invitation is extended to local Veteran’s associations as well as active duty guard or reserve personnel. The service is open to the public.
