

MISSOURI VALLEY

COLLEGE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MVC TO HONOR MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Local NAACP president to speak.

Marshall, Mo. (January 11, 2006)—Missouri Valley College’s speech and public relations class and the Black Student Union is honoring civil rights leader Martin Luther King, Jr. at a special luncheon on Monday, January 16. This is the 20th anniversary of the federal holiday.

Clyde Williams, president of the Marshall chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, will be the guest speaker at the event. Daniel Bubb, MVC social science lecturer, will give a presentation on King’s life and his achievements.

“We are proud to honor Martin Luther King, Jr.,” said Dr. Bonnie Humphrey, MVC president. “His work in civil rights and its historical value is immeasurable.”

The luncheon will take place in the R. Wilson Brown Room in the Ferguson Center at 12 noon until 1:30 p.m. Reservations are required and can be made at 660-831-4133 or dittmers@moval.edu. Payments of $6 will be taken at the door. Reservations are accepted until 2 p.m. on Friday, January 13.

ABOUT MISSOURI VALLEY COLLEGE

Missouri Valley College is a liberal arts college that provides educational, social and cultural experiences in a decidedly Christian environment. Established in 1889, MVC offers 27 majors and 7 pre-professional programs, and 12 sports and 20 varsity teams. The liberal arts heritage focuses on scholarship, critical thinking and academic excellence to prepare students to become members of a responsible citizenry. For more information, call (660) 831-4172 or visit www.moval.edu.

###

Media Relations Contacts:

Chad Jaecques, (660) 831-4172, jaecquesc@moval.edu