MVC SPIRIT SQUAD TO COMPETE AT NATIONAL COMPETITION

Cheerleaders and Glitter Girls to Showcase National Routine Wednesday, January 11.

Marshall, Mo. (January 10, 2006)—The Missouri Valley College Spirit Squad is making final preparations for the Universal Cheerleading Association College Cheerleading and Dance Team National Championships January 13 through January 15 in Orlando, Fla.

The Spirit Squad is made up of two different teams—the MVC Cheerleading Squad and the MVC Glitter Girls. The Cheerleaders are competing in the Small Coed II Semi-finals and the Glitter Girls will compete in the Open Division Dance Semi-finals.

“This is an excellent representation of the commitment of our student-athletes at Missouri Valley College,” said Dr. Bonnie Humphrey, Missouri Valley College president. “Competition at the national level is a great opportunity to make people all over the country aware of the outstanding programs offered at Missouri Valley.”

The Cheerleaders and Glitter Girls will showcase their nationals routine for the 2006 UCA/UDA Nationals at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, January 11 in the Morrison Fine Arts Building (“old gym”) on the MVC campus. The event is free and open to the public.

MVC will compete against such schools as San Francisco State University, Northern Kentucky University, Delta State University, Lindenwood University, Ithaca College, University of Central Arkansas, and more.
