MISSOURI VALLEY COLLEGE ATHLETIC TRAINING STUDENT ORGANIZATION RECOGNIZED AT CONVOCATION CEREMONY

September 4, 2009

During the 2009-2010 Missouri Valley College convocation ceremony on September 3, 2009, the Missouri Valley College Athletic Training Student Organization (MVC ATSO) was recognized in front of and presented to the 2009-2010 freshmen class and Missouri Valley College President Bonnie Humphrey. MVC ATSO president, and Missouri Athletic Training Student Council member, Josh Lammert and MVC ATSO treasurer Amber Doughty represented the MVC ATSO during the ceremony.

“This was a great opportunity for the MVC ATSO to be recognized in front of the entire college, the freshman class, faculty and administrators,” said MVC ATSO faculty representative and Head Athletic Trainer Matt Rowlett.

Missouri Valley College has always had the campus organizations and athletic teams introduced to the president during convocation week. However, this has always been performed the day before the official convocation ceremony and performed without the freshmen class, faculty, and staff present. This year Missouri Valley College made an adjustment in the schedule allowing all the campus organizations and athletic teams to be recognized during the official convocation ceremony.

“This year’s procedure was a great improvement than previous years,” stated Josh Lammert who participated in last year’s presentation. “I liked the opportunity for our organization (and essentially our major) to be introduced to the entire freshman class. That increased our organizations’ exposure to everybody.”

Amber Doughty added, “although we did not spend much time on stage just being announced and participating in the ceremony validates our organization and our mission.”

The MVC ATSO traditionally presents President Humphrey with a gift during the ceremony; this year it presented her with an “I Love My Athletic Trainer” t-shirt.
