Smith Cotton Tiger Signs to Play Volleyball for the Lady Vikings

Marshall, Mo. (January 22, 2010)—Smith Cotton senior, Briana Williams, signed a letter of intent on Friday, January 22, to play volleyball for Missouri Valley College next season. Briana is the daughter of Shelane Williams of Sedalia, Mo. While in high school, she has been active in not only varsity volleyball, but also; band, DECA, and FTA. Briana is a senior class officer, member of the honor roll, and RYLA Leadership Award recipient.

Missouri Valley College head volleyball coach Derick White says, “We are excited to have another local kid joining our program, and look forward to having Briana as part of the Missouri Valley family.”

ABOUT MISSOURI VALLEY COLLEGE

Missouri Valley College is a liberal arts college that provides educational, social and cultural experiences in a decidedly Christian environment. Established in 1889, MVC offers over 30 majors and 7 pre-professional programs, and 15 sports. The most popular majors include education and business, and the newest majors are nursing, graphic design, dance, and hospitality/tourism management, which will begin in Fall 2009. The liberal arts heritage focuses on scholarship, critical thinking and academic excellence to prepare students to become members of a responsible citizenry.
