Marshall, Mo. (February 3, 2010)— Missouri Valley College hosted the 2010 Women's College Wrestling Association (WCWA) National competition on Jan. 30 at the Burn's Complex. Over 150 wrestlers from 12 schools across the country traveled to Marshall, Mo., to compete at the National level.

The Missouri Valley women's wrestling team finished in sixth place overall and had four athletes reach All-American status by placing in the top six individually. This year's All-American Lady Vikings included; Keeya Skyes (44kg, 6th place), Britney Heatherly (48kg, 6th place), Randi Beltz (59kg, 2nd place), and Jordan Hagerman (82kg, 5th place).

Two Lady Vikings, sophomore Britney Heatherly and junior Rachel Pike were presented with academic All-American honors at the WCWA banquet held Friday, Jan. 29.

"I was very pleased with our athlete's performances," said MVC Head Wrestling Coach Carl Murphree." Beltz had an incredible tournament. With a team as young as ours, this performance is definitely something we can build on in the coming years."
