MISSOURI VALLEY RODEO TEAM VISITS ST. PETER'S CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Marshall, Mo. (March 10, 2010)—The Missouri Valley College rodeo team visited St. Peter's Catholic School in Marshall, Mo., to demonstrate different rodeo events such as bull riding, calf roping, and goat tying for the students.

St. Peter's students, faculty, and staff dressed in cowboy and cowgirl attire for the event to show support for the MVC rodeo team.

"I love the opportunity to teach young people about our sport," said Head Coach Ken Mason. "It's not only a sport, it's a culture and way of life."

The Missouri Valley men's rodeo team is currently ranked No. 1 in the Ozark Region and No. 1 in national standings. The women's team is ranked fourth in the Ozark Region.

The MVC rodeo team kicks off their spring season this weekend, March 11, at Southern Arkansas University in Searcy, Ark.

About Missouri Valley College

Missouri Valley College is a liberal arts college that provides educational, social and cultural experiences in a decidedly Christian environment. Established in 1889, MVC offers 30 majors and 7 pre-professional programs, and 15 sports and 25 varsity teams. The most popular majors include business and education, and the newest majors are nursing, graphic design, and hospitality and tourism management. The liberal arts heritage focuses on scholarship, critical thinking and academic excellence to prepare students to become members of a responsible citizenry.
