WOOLDRIDGE SIGNS TO PLAY VOLLEYBALL AT MISSOURI VALLEY COLLEGE

Marshall, Mo. (April 7, 2010)—El Dorado Springs High School Senior Erica Wooldridge has signed a letter of intent to play volleyball for the Missouri Valley College Lady Vikings next fall.

While in high school, Wooldridge received All District, All Region, and All State honors in volleyball. She is involved in various clubs at El Dorado Springs High School and is president of the 2010 senior class.

“Erica comes from a small-town program with quite a bit of success,” says MVC Head Coach Derick White. “I know her coach and I am sure she has gotten some great instruction. We are looking forward to seeing her continue to develop at the next level.”

Wooldridge is the daughter of Nick Smith and Melissa Shore. She plans to major in elementary education at Missouri Valley College.

About Missouri Valley College

Missouri Valley College is a liberal arts college that provides educational, social and cultural experiences in a decidedly Christian environment. Established in 1889, MVC offers 30 majors and 7 pre-professional programs, and 15 sports and 25 varsity teams. The most popular majors include business and education, and the newest majors are nursing, graphic design, and hospitality and tourism management. The liberal arts heritage focuses on scholarship, critical thinking and academic excellence to prepare students to become members of a responsible citizenry.
