MVC VOLLEYBALL PICKS UP TWO CONFERENCE AWARDS

Marshall, Mo. (September 30, 2013)-
The Missouri Valley College women’s volleyball team picked up two weekly Heart of America Athletic Conference awards after going 3-0 in matches, improving to 14-1 on the season. Senior Setter Tarrah Sweet (Roswell, N.M.) was named Setter of the Week and Senior Libero Diane Dellasalla (Houston, Texas) was named Libero of the Week.

Sweet helped MVC to a conference victory over Central Methodist University 25-6, 25-10, 21-25, 25-13 finishing with 40 assists and eight digs. In a pair of 3-0 wins over Bethany College and McPherson College at the McPherson Triangular, Sweet had 77 total assists, including a double-double of 42 assists and 14 digs against McPherson. Sweet leads the HAAC in assists per game with a 10.8 average. This is her second award of the season and fifth of her MVC career.

Dellasalla earned the weekly honor by coming up with 18 digs and four assists in the win over Central Methodist. At the McPherson Triangular, she finished with 32 total digs and four assists. Dellasalla is fifth in the HAAC in digs per game, averaging 4.6. This is the first weekly award for her in her career at MVC.

The Vikings are 14-1 on the season, one of the best starts in program history, and are 2-1 in HAAC play. MVC will host Evangel University Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the Burns Athletic Complex, their only home match until Tuesday Oct. 29.
