MVC SOCCER SWEEPS CONFERENCE AWARDS

Marshall, Mo. (November 11, 2013)- The Missouri Valley College men’s soccer team swept the weekly individual awards from the Heart of America Athletic Conference. Senior Keeper Josh Wells (Kent, England) was named the HAAC Defensive Player of the Week and Senior Forward Alberto Linan Gomez (Seville, Spain) was named the HAAC Offensive Player of the Week.

In the 4-1 win over Graceland University on Friday in the opening round of the HAAC Postseason Tournament, Wells had a game-high five saves. Wells currently holds a 1.050 goals allowed per game average. This is the third weekly award of the season for Wells.

Gomez earned the offensive award thanks to scoring two goals against Graceland University. Gomez is second on the team with 10 overall goals and five assists. This is the second weekly conference award for Gomez this season.

Next, the men’s soccer team will enter the semifinal round of the HAAC Postseason Tournament against No.1 seed MidAmerica Nazarene University on Tuesday at 1 p.m.
