• The No. 7 football team was defeated by No. 3 Carroll (Mont.) College in the quarterfinal round of the NAIA Football Championship Series 27-3. The Vikings were led by Junior Running Back James Tillman (Kansas City, Mo.) who finished with 75 total yards and Freshman Linebacker Luke Fisher (Wesley Chapel, Fla.) who finished with 11 total tackles. The loss ends the season for MVC with a 9-3 record which included a third-straight Heart of America Athletic Conference championship.

• The basketball team had 26 of its student-athletes named to the HAAC all-conference team. The Vikings were led by Senior Defensive Lineman Ty Phillips (East St. Louis, Ill.) who was named the HAAC Defensive Player of the Year. Joining Phillips on the all-conference first team were Junior Offensive Lineman Roy Wolfrum (Wentzville, Mo.), Senior Defensive Lineman Leon Jackson (Merced, Calif.), Senior Linebacker Danny Reyes (Hesperia, Calif.), Senior Cornerback Tyler Davis (St. Louis, Mo.), Senior Defensive Back Phillip Fowler (San Diego, Calif.) and Junior Defensive Back Michael Barnes (Beaumont, Texas).

• The men's basketball team dropped both its games during the week, losing to No. 4 Columbia (Mo.) College 84-70 and losing on the road to NCAA Division II University of Missouri-St. Louis 75-65. Leading MVC during the week was Sophomore Raviel Burton (St. Johns, Antigua) who averaged 13.5 points, 6.5 rebounds and two blocks in both games. The Vikings are now 6-4 on the season.

• The women's basketball team won its only game last week, defeating Stephens College for the second time this season 86-52. Leading MVC in the victory was Senior Guard Regine Mecenario (Delano, Calif.) who scored 15 points with seven steals and three assists. Also in double-figures was Senior Forward Gabby Lovelace (Pleasant Hill, Mo.) and Sophomore Guard Rayna Smith (St. Louis, Mo.) each with 12 points. The Vikings are now 6-2 and have won six straight games, the longest winning streak in nearly seven years.

• The women's volleyball team had five of its student-athletes named to the HAAC all-conference team. Named first team all-conference was Senior Setter Tarrah Sweet (Roswell, N.M.) and Freshman Outside Hitter Lauren Eldridge (Kansas City, Mo.). Senior Libero Diane Dellasala (Houston, Texas) was a second team selection, while Senior Outside Hitter Ana Calito (Rio de Janeiro, Brazil) and Junior Opposite Taylor Trotter (Bartonville, Ill.) were named to the honorable mention team.

• The men's cross country team finished as the No. 23 ranked team in the final NAIA Men's Cross Country Coaches' Top 25 Poll. The ranking comes after the Vikings finished No. 23 as a team at the NAIA National Championship in November. The Vikings also captured the program’s first conference title since 1986.
