Abraham Lincoln: A Man Of His Time, A Man For All Times

November 7—December 5 at Murrell Library

“Each year, four million people visit Lincoln’s Memorial in Washington D.C. More books have been written about Lincoln than any other American, yet public knowledge about our most famous president is dominated by a series of iconic images.”

The exhibit illustrates that two centuries after his birth, Lincoln still speaks to Americans and the world. Raised in Kentucky and Indiana frontiers, and formed by his experiences as a lawyer in Illinois, Lincoln wrestled with issues of race and rights, with the limits of political leadership, and with civil liberties during wartime. His administration advanced the idea of the United States as a single, unified nation, and he set an agenda for inclusive democracy that continues to have resonance today.
