

Missouri Valley College

Dates to Remember:

March:

Women's History Month

- 1st

Chocolate Gala

7pm in the Coffee by the Book
Room

- 2nd, 9th, 16th, 23rd & 30th

Yoga

5:30-6:30pm in the Teacher Ed.
Library

- 4th

Dr. Seuss' Birthday Celebration

5:30pm in the Teacher Ed.
Library

- 5th (9-4pm) & 6th (9-1pm)

Book Sale!

Murrell Library Lobby

- 30th

Culture Fair

7pm in the Library Lobby &
Reading Room

Check these out

New Books:

- *A World without Ice
- *Casting the First Stone
- *The Friday Night Knitting Club
- *Listening In: Radio and the American Imagination
- *The War that Killed Achilles:
The True Story of Homer's Iliad...

New Videos:

- Harry Potter and the Half Blood
Prince
- Whip It
- World's Greatest Dad

Kicking off March at Full Speed!

March your way over to Murrell Library for some high-speed entertainment this month!

First things first, the long awaited, highly anticipated, Chocolate Gala will be held on the 1st at 7:00pm (MONDAY) in the Coffee by the Book Room. For those of you who may not have heard, or may not understand what a Chocolate Gala is... It is a party where CHOCOLATE is the special guest and if you even remotely like chocolate you are going to want to be there!

Plan to work off those excess pounds that may have been put on at the Chocolate Gala? Well, get your Yoga on every Tuesday night in the Teacher Ed. Library from 5:30-6:30pm.

Okay, the Chocolate Gala may not be a wise choice for parents... it is never fun to have a child hopped up on chocolate, but you do not want them to miss out on all the fun this month! Bring them by the Teacher Ed. Library on the 4th at 5:30pm for the Dr. Seuss birthday party! Let them eat cake and celebrate this joyous occasion.

On the 5th and 6th you are more than welcome to rummage through the library lobby in search of some inexpensive literature at our monthly book sale!

On the 30th at 7:00pm the library challenges you to travel the world! Taste some authentic food and interact with the locals at the 2nd annual Culture Fair!

Fasten your seatbelts and enjoy the events!

Writing Contest Winner

Congratulations to Adam Crain! He won the Murrell Library Writing Contest in recognition of Black History Month!

His entry, "Different, but Alive," described the influence Ai's poem "Conversation" had on his life. Adam credits the poem with revealing "the beauty that life is."

Adam's grand prize was a $20 gift certificate to Barnes and Noble!

Everyone who entered received free coffee tickets! Yum!

Singled Out Wrap-Up

Couldn't make it to Singled Out? Here is what you missed:

Flannery Crump, Always Young and Jacque Hovis were the three lovely contestants that got to sing, dance and role play for Chris McDaniels, the handsome bachelor.

After their final challenge, a karaoke sing/dance off, Chris singled out Always Young!

Thanks to all our contestants for being such great sports... some of the question were pretty funky!

Left: Chris McDaniels & Always Young
Bottom: Flannery Crump, Always Young & Jacque Hovis

This month's AWESOME work study may look awfully familiar... that is because our AWESOME worker is none other than the handsome bachelor from Singled Out, Chris McDaniels!

Chris plans to major in Astronomy and Astrophysics; he confessed that his pursuit of this major means he will have to transfer in a year or so. When not working at the library, Chris is involved with SGA, TKE, Football and somehow finds the time to dominate all his fraternity brothers at Fight Night: Round 3 and think about practical ways of improving "Chris McDaniels."

Another little tidbit the library staff knows about Chris is he likes to sleep... a lot. In fact his sleeping habits got him written up last week. He'll have to kiss his chances at Work Study of the Year goodbye and really enjoy his current time in the spotlight!

Chris asked that I warn the library patrons of a common library hazard. Apparently many cute couples are torn apart after a "Chris McDaniels" sighting. He does not want to be the hunky wedge driven between a once happy relationship. So, avoid his work hours or invest in a blindfold! And Ladies, Chris does not believe in love at first sight.

Congratulations Chris! Keep up the FABULOUS work... and quit it with the yellow slips!

Christopher McDaniels

Ask Libby the Librarian

Dear Libby,

I've noticed there are a lot of sleeping students in the library. They're everywhere, too! Not only are they on all the couches and cushy chairs, but they are laying across two or three lab chairs and some people are just spread-eagled on the floor! To me this looks like a problem... like hello, if the library keeps this up there won't be a library! Yeah! Somebody important on campus will be inspired by this phenomenon and over the summer Murrell Library will be converted into a DORM! Then where will I study?

And don't even try and tell me I'm over-exaggerating!

Super Concerned Patron

Concerned Patron,

Why so many sleeping students? It turns out that the library has been experiencing a mass amount of cappuccino theft. The staff has gone back and forth for months trying to come up with a solution for this little problem.

Two months ago I decided to enhance the beverage with a sleep agent... Why? because I knew that would minimize theft. Once a person finishes their cup, they will fall fast asleep. While asleep each person is interrogated, yes interrogated. We've found that most people will confess to taking a cup or two of cappuccino while in this state... and we bill their account based on their admission.

I know what you're thinking, but we wouldn't have to go to these lengths if people would just be honest!

Stop stealing the cappuccino!
Libby

Check them out!

