

Economics

Sample Year by Year

Not all courses offered every semester

-
- |          |          |
|----------|----------|
| Year One | ◆ SC 100 |
| ◆ EN 130 | ◆ NP 100 |
| ◆ EN 160 | ◆ PE 221 |
| ◆ SP 100 | ◆ PH 105 |
| ◆ MA 165 | ◆ GS 150 |
| ◆ MA 185 |          |
-
- |          |          |
|----------|----------|
| Year Two | ◆ EC 216 |
| ◆ AC 210 | ◆ BA 232 |
| ◆ CS 119 | ◆ PL 125 |
| ◆ EC 206 | ◆ BI 104 |
| ◆ BA 212 |          |
| ◆ HS 105 |          |
| ◆ AC 220 |          |
-
- |            |                           |
|------------|---------------------------|
| Year Three | ◆ PY 100                  |
| ◆ BA 282   | ◆ MU 101                  |
| ◆ EC 375   | ◆ 2 Upper Level Electives |
| ◆ EC 355   |                           |
| ◆ BA 302   |                           |
| ◆ BA 322   |                           |
| ◆ PS 100   |                           |
-
- |           |                           |
|-----------|---------------------------|
| Year Four | ◆ EC 455                  |
| ◆ EC 435  | ◆ 4 Upper Level Electives |
| ◆ BA 324  |                           |
| ◆ EC 385  |                           |
| ◆ BA 442  |                           |
| ◆ EC 450  |                           |

Students earning a bachelor's degree in economics must demonstrate knowledge in the business core, you'll do this through additional coursework in accounting, finance, business law, economics and marketing.

Career Possibilities

- Corporate Economist
- Strategic/Corporate Planning
- Higher Education
- Consulting
- Economic Development
- Labor, Environmental, Credit Union or Bank Economist

Graduate Program Possibilities

- Master of Business Administration
- Master in Applied Economics
- Law School

Why a degree in Economics from Missouri Valley?

Missouri Valley's foundation in the liberal arts teaches you to think for yourself, communicate effectively and develop a capacity for lifelong learning; all of these traits are essential to excelling in economics. Our program starts at the beginning and covers economic theories that will help you understand market structures. This background is useful as you learn global economic principles, study supply and demand, develop an understanding of both micro and macro economics and examine the underlying mechanics of monetary and fiscal policies.