

Sociology

Sample Year by Year

Not all courses offered every semester

- Year One
- ◆ EN 130
 - ◆ SP 100
 - ◆ GS 150
 - ◆ PY 100
 - ◆ HS 105
 - ◆ EN 160
 - ◆ SC 100
 - ◆ MA 150
 - ◆ PE 221
 - ◆ PH 105

- Year Two
- ◆ NP 100
 - ◆ NP 101
 - ◆ BI 104
 - ◆ PS 215
 - ◆ SC 232
 - ◆ SC 275
 - ◆ SC 300
 - ◆ AR 201
 - ◆ MA 200
 - ◆ PL 125

- Year Three
- ◆ SC 316
 - ◆ 4 Upper Level Electives
 - ◆ 4 Electives

- Year Four
- ◆ SC 329
 - ◆ SC 401
 - ◆ SC 485
 - ◆ 2 Electives
 - ◆ 5 Upper Level Electives

Sociology is the scientific study of how people behave as social groups; how they interact with others in society; and how society operates to shape and impact our lives. It is an exciting field of study that at once helps us to understand society, and endow us with knowledge and social skills that can be applied to succeed in numerous satisfying careers in contemporary society.

Career Possibilities

- Urban planning, including environmental regulation and services consultation
- Research and advising/consulting
- Management
- Human rights advocate
- Health Care organization and social services management
- Law, including justice system administration and social ethics advocacy
- Public policy analyst

Graduate Program Possibilities

- Social Work
- Education
- Business
- Counseling

Why a degree in Sociology from Missouri Valley?

We offer a wholesome curriculum with the aim of providing you with a comprehensive and solid foundation in the field because nearly everything in the ordinary business of life is connected to sociology. Through our program you'll develop skills that are applicable to many fields, including critical thinking and inquiry, research methodology and analytical and problem-solving skills. MVC's liberal arts background allows you to further develop and practice their skill set in other coursework.